Agenda and Minutes

1. Discussion – CCOC memo on issues surrounding CO1, CO2, and CO3 courses.
 - a. Nancy Ciccone, chair of English, will participate.
 - b. This memo should offer guidelines.
 - c. Advisors could send students to English for advising specific to their situation, which gives English the ability to make decisions at the department level.
 - d. Can pilot this for one semester to make sure it doesn't turn into an unforeseen burden. Also, monitor to see if most students get the same advice; if so, then we could consider a more automated process.
 - e. ACTION: Create a new draft and submit to all advisors for review.
2. Discussion – comments on and suggested changes to the CCOC memo regarding students pursuing a second bachelor's degree.
 - a. Specific questions raised by Karin Hunter-Byrd, CAM advising director.
 - b. Does this memo present a CCOC policy or guideline?
 - i. State explicitly that these are guidelines.
 - c. No other changes.
3. Review fall 2013 First-Year Seminar course proposals. ACTION: All accepted and approved.
 - a. BIOL 1111, "This is Your Body On ..."
 - b. ECON 1111, "Making Decisions: Economics of Everyday Life"
 - c. ENGL 1111, "Monsters, Vampires and Ghosts"
 - d. PHIL 1111, "Philosophy as the Love of Wisdom"
 - e. WGST 1111, "'Good' Girls Gone 'Bad'"
4. Discussion – CAM has proposed to change the prefix on core course ARTS 1450 from "ARTS" to "FINE."
 - a. Accepted and approved.
 - b. CAM must also make this change for gtPathways, which is done at the state level.
